Mugging-30

We hear a young couple parking their car and happily chatting away when suddenly they're interrupted by a loud tap on the window.

SFX: traffic, honking, woman crying etc.

MUGGER: Give me your wallet now mate or your miss's cops it

Couple together crying: I don't have anything...

MUGGER: Stop mucking me around you moron...

Couple together crying: please no..no...

MUGGER: You hear me properly? Or you wanna end it now then hey? Is that what you want? ..ok then! Yeah yeah ok... We hear the shooter unloading his gun on the shop keeper.

However instead of real gun shots we hear the shooter making child-like gun sound effects with his own voice.
