

St John Ambulance Radio – Burns 45 sec Script

CRASH COURSE IV (BURNS)

SFX: Young girl whimpering and crying.

OPERATOR: Just tell me her age and exactly what's happened

WOMAN: Her name's Emily. She's five years old. We were making hot chips. She poured hot oil all down her arm.

OPERATOR: The ambulance is on its way. Do you know first aid?

WOMAN: No I don't sorry, I don't know first aid sorry. Emily, come here sweetie put your arms up...

SFX: The young girl suddenly screams in pain.

WOMAN: Oh no, no, no. It's all over her chest too.

OPERATOR: It's important that you do not lift or remove her clothing.

WOMAN: Oh no it's blistered real bad. She'll be scarred ...

OPERATOR: Do not remove her clothing.

OPERATOR: I need you to stay calm for your daughter.

WOMAN: (Breaks down as the enormity of the situation dawns on her.)

She's not mine. She's my friend's ... I'm looking after her ...

FVO VI: Don't let this be the first time you learn first aid. Book a St John Ambulance Community First Aid Course now for just $99. Call 1300 ST JOHN