Title “GETTING BURNT”

Length 30 SEC

BRIAN: In Cricket news today, tensions appear to have escalated between Matthew Hayden and Michael Clarke in their latest backyard cricket clash.

During the luncheon interval yesterday, Hayden failed to even offer Clarke a burnt sausage off the barbecue while the Queenslander himself feasted on Frenched cutlets and Salad Nicoise.

Clarke has played down the incident saying that Hayden is getting old and probably just forgot.

Title “WUSS”

Length 30 SEC

BRIAN: To cricket now... and Mike Hussey yesterday strongly denied any backyard cricket rift involving Matthew Hayden and Michael Clarke after Hayden allegedly called Clarke a fake-tan-wearing, spiky-haired, blonde-tipped wuss in an exchange between the pair at Bill Lawry’s house last Sunday afternoon.

Andrew Symonds’ only comment was that at least Clarke had some hair.

... but in an exit poll this morning, Andrew Symonds claimed anyone wanting to play for Hussey’s Heroes seriously needed to consider “getting a life”.

Matthew Hayden, speaking from his BBQ on Stradbroke Island, suggested Symonds might be better off “getting some runs”.
