MVO: What happens when an astronaut, hurtling around the heavens, gets an itchy nose? Well, those clever folks at NASA thought up a solution, and engineered a small piece of Velcro inside every spacesuit helmet - positioned just right for nose space scratching. MVO: Learnings from SEEK Learning (Wave Theft)

MVO: It's 1984 in a heavily litigious America. A Californian surfer sees fit to take a fellow surfer to court. The charge? The theft of his wave. The judge dutifully heard both sides before throwing the case out. His decision was not based on the ridiculous nature of the case but his inability to award damages to the plaintiff. Total bummer, dude.
