Industrialised Ningaloo – Version 1

SFX: The light lapping of waves on the beach as a snorkeler surfaces.

VO: Exploring ancient marine life that spans as far as the eye can see.

That's Ningaloo!

SFX: A faint industrial sound begins to get louder and louder

VO: Seeing the giants of the deep in a world-class whale sanctuary.

That's Ningaloo!

SFX: The drone of a ship dragging a pipe starts up, forcing the VO talent to project their voice over the noise.

VO: (Now yelling and getting hoarse) Seeing dugongs, manta rays and the creatures of the deep...

SFX: Industrial sounds fully take over and become super loud. Cut to a second of silence. The light lapping of waves on the beach returns.

VO: If this Ningaloo doesn't sound right to you - tell Mark McGowan to stop the Subsea 7 Project.

Sign the petition at protectningaloo.org.au

(Extra if time: Smelling the salt and seeing the waves lap the shore., that's Ningaloo)
