Title: Dodgy Doggy Door

Woman: Lucky, dinner, come here boy.

SFX: Sound of a dog running fast and panting heavily.

Sound of the dogs paws running across grass, then dirt, then grass, then concrete, then up a couple of steps.

Then a large metallic “clang!” as the dog runs at full speed into an immovable object.

Sound of a dizzy dog whimpering.

Woman: (From behind door) Trevor! Your new doggy door doesn't work.
