

"I'M SORRY"

Howard:

Mr Speaker, I think it's time I said I'm ssss.... sincerely regretful about what has taken place... I mean, it was a terrible page in our nation's history and I'm ssss... certain that we will endeavour to ensure the same mistakes are not repeated. So, on behalf of this nation, it is only right for me to say that I'm [cough], excuse me, er, Mister Speaker, now...
