

The Leaf Blower Radio 45

VB anthem throughout.
MVO:

“A hard earned thirst needs a big cold beer especially after tidying up the front yard on a beautiful Autumn day...with a twin cylinder 2 stroke 60cc leaf blower.

Why would anyone in their right mind push leaves around with a rake when at the pull of a trigger you can blow them away.

In any blokes mind, the Leaf Blower is pure poetry...

‘Little leaf, little leaf, fly away from here, its time for me to crack a big cold beer, to the gutter or neighbour take your pick, for tis the best cold beer - an ice cold Vic. Victoria Bitter’.

Test Match Cricket (the board-game) Radio 45

VB anthem throughout.
MVO:

“A hard earned thirst needs a big cold beer especially when you’re playing test match cricket – the board game.

Ahh the sweet smell of felt and Velcro stretched out across the fold out table in the Jayco pop-top. ‘I’m Dennis Lilly, no I’m Dennis Lilly!’ – you say as the ball bearing thunders from the bowler’s arm... ramp. So realistic yet so unreal.

And at the end of the 5th day, a true test can only conclude with stumps pulled and a big cold beer after the match, and the best cold beer is Vic. Victoria Bitter.”
