What you don't want is to come back as something boring

mmmmm... Like a coat hanger

Remember Peter the nine inch nail?

Ah yes!

He came back as a drain in a mens urinal

arghhhh please!

Na, it wasn't nice.

I'd like to come back as a roof rack, you know?

A roof rack?

Yeah! Do a bit of travelling

I was a bicycle wheel once, but it just made me dizzy going round and round and round.

Oh, of course yeah! It wouldn't be much fun

Don't want that again!

You were a bob and winder on a sewing machine last time I saw you!

And look at you now, A trombone

(trombone noise) Oh, Nice! What else have you been up to?

Oh ive been busier than a swiss army knife on a boys scout camp

Have you?

I was a wok in a Chinese takeaway for a while...

Tasty!

...before that I was in an eight piece soccer team and i'm hoping to come back as a heated towel rail

It's just that it would be nice if you could choose what you came back as.
