

TERMS AND CONDITIONS – 2022 SIREN AWARDS (“Siren Awards”)

1. General

These Terms and Conditions govern the rules under which the Siren Awards will be conducted. By submitting your entry you will be taken to have unequivocally accepted these Terms and Conditions and will be entering into a binding agreement with Commercial Radio Australia Limited (“Commercial Radio Australia” or “CRA”).

Commercial Radio Australia does not guarantee that it will publish or communicate any entry on the Website or elsewhere.

Commercial Radio Australia accepts no responsibility or liability for late, lost (including through technical malfunctions) or misdirected entries. All entries are deemed to be received, at the time of receipt into the Commercial Radio Australia's database and not at time of transmission by the entrant.

Commercial Radio Australia may extend the time for or terminate the Siren Awards at any time and for any reason in its sole discretion. In the event of termination, Commercial Radio Australia may elect not to award any prize in respect of the terminated Siren Awards.

The Siren Awards rules (including these Terms and Conditions) may be varied by Commercial Radio Australia at any time. CRA accepts no responsibility for and will not be liable because of any reliance placed on the Siren Awards rules before they were varied.

If, for any reason, the competition is not capable of operating as planned, including infection by computer viruses, tampering, unauthorised intervention, fraud or any other causes beyond the control of Commercial Radio Australia which corrupts or affects the administration, security, fairness, or proper conduct of the competition, then Commercial Radio Australia reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend this competition.

Judging will take place in a series of rounds leading up to the judging and awarding of the annual prizes.

The Siren Awards are run by Commercial Radio Australia. All entries must meet the following additional criteria:

- (vi) Only one party may enter an advertisement into each category, i.e. Agency or Production Company.
- (vii) In the event that the same advertisement is submitted into one or more categories by two different entrants, only the first entry will be accepted. If different parts of the same campaign are submitted by both the production company and the advertising agency, the first company to enter will be entitled to choose whether to enter the whole campaign.
- (viii) All entries submitted must have been created within the context of a normal paying contract with a client, except in the case of self-promotion and non-profit organisations.
- (ix) Commercial Radio Australia reserves the right to move entries to more appropriate categories.

Any certificates or trophies will be inscribed with the credits as you typed them on the entry form.

Commercial Radio Australia reserves the right at all times and in its absolute discretion to disqualify any entrants and/or to request the return of any prizes and/or to withdraw an announcement that a person has won a prize in the Siren Awards if the entry is found to be ineligible or otherwise in breach of these terms and conditions.

Commercial Radio Australia may reject incomplete, invalid, ineligible or late entries in its sole discretion.

3. Categories of Awards

The categories that you may enter your advertisement in are as follows:

4. Submitting your entry

You can only enter the Siren Awards by:

- (i) fully completing the online form on the Siren website; and
- (ii) submitting a script and an audio file of the relevant advertisement (referred to below as “your entry”). In the case of advertisements entered under the Craft Entry category, only the audio file is necessary.
  - a. Audio material must be submitted as MP3 files at 256 kbps/sec, 16 bit stereo, the general standard for sending commercials to radio stations. This will ensure that the sound quality of each spot is fairly represented.

You may enter each advertisement in one or more of the three categories, provided that you complete a separate entry form for each different category. You may enter as many different advertisements that meet the Eligibility Criteria as you wish.

Each advertisement or campaign may only be entered once in each category. The only exception to this is if Commercial Radio Australia, in its sole discretion, decides to run a ‘Final Call’, when entrants are given the chance to submit work previously not entered in the 2021 Siren Awards, or to re-enter work that did not win any of rounds 1 to 5 and was not Highly Commended (see 5.1 below) in any of rounds 1 to 5, provided that such work fulfils the eligibility criteria.
